Quick Question

Quick Question

1/1 point (graded)
K-means clustering differs from Hierarchical clustering in a couple important ways. Which of the following statements is true?

- ⦿ In k-means clustering, you have to pick the number of clusters you want before you run the algorithm. ✔

- ○ In k-means clustering, you can pick the number of clusters you want after the algorithm is done, just like in Hierarchical clustering.

Submit     You have used 1 of 1 attempt

✔   Correct (1/1 point)